

CLIFFS OF DOONEEN

1. You may <sup>E</sup> trav - el <sup>A</sup> far far from your <sup>D</sup> own na - tive <sup>E</sup> home, far a -
<sup>A</sup> none <sup>D</sup> to com - - pare <sup>E</sup> to The Cliffs of Doo - - neen.

1. You may travel far far from your own native home
 Far away oer the mountains far away oer the foam
 But of all the fine places that I've ever seen,
 There's none to compare with The Cliffs of Dooneen
2. Take a view oer the water fine sights you'll see there
 You'll see the high rocky slopes on the West coast of Clare
 The towns of Kilrush and Kilkee can be seen
 From the high rocky slopes at The Cliffs of Dooneen
3. Its a nice place to be on a fine Summer's day
 Watching all the wild flowers that ne'er do decay
 The hare and lofty pheasant are plain to be seen
 Making homes for their young round The Cliffs of Dooneen
4. Fare thee well to Dooneen fare thee well for a while
 And to all the fine people I'm leaving behind
 To the streams and the meadows where late I have been
 And the high rocky slopes of The Cliffs of Dooneen
